

ELLEN BOYSEN ST. CLAIR

Daughter of Julius Boysen,
Pioneer Yosemite Photographer

(A tape recorded interview)

by

Douglass H. Hubbard,
Chief Naturalist, Yosemite National Park

August 26, 1960
Sacramento, California

The following photograph is a horizontal view of a group standing around the burial stone after the funeral of Galen Clark. This is a section of a larger photo, cut down to show a better view of Ellen Boysen St. Clair.

In back: George Fiske, left and James McCauley, right. Children, from left to right are: Lillian Parks, Alice Degnan, Mildred Souvelewski, Eugene Tucker, Lawrence Souvelewski, Evelyn Turner, and Ellen Boysen.

Copyright 1910 by J. T. Boysen

ELLEN BOYSEN ST. CLAIR

(A tape recorded interview)

SIDE 1

TOPICS INTRODUCED

(About one-half of this side is inaudible)

Life in Yosemite Park

Biographical information about her parents and
Mrs. St. Clair

SIDE 2

TOPICS INTRODUCED

Reminisces about family friends

Operating the Photo Studio until 1934

Photographing tourists

Indian baskets

Death of parents

Early photographers in Yosemite Park